EVENTMANAGEMENT & MARKETING INTERNSHIP IN NORWAY

Do you want to have a challenging internship in the field of event management in one of the most beautiful surroundings of Norway? Stavanger Kickoff is looking for an outgoing and motivated intern, who wants to support our company in 2018.

What your profile should look like:

- Study programme or apprenticeship in the field of business and management, ideally with a focus on marketing, sales or event management
- Independent way of working
- Organisation skills and flexibility
- Reliable and not afraid to take over some responsibility
- Creative minds are welcome 😊
- Driver's license
- First experiences with events
- Some basics in the Norwegian language would be helpful, but are not necessary!
- You can stay for at least 4 months and up to 6 months

Your tasks could be:

- Keep in touch with the customers, advise and do sales
- Developing new marketing projects and system
- Creative organisation and implementation of events
- Assist with daily work tasks

We offer flexible working hours, fun at work and responsible, challenging tasks. A monthly salary is paid. Even if your profile does not fulfil everything of the above mentioned, feel free to send us your CV and show us why you need to work with us!

Starting date spring season: January-March 2018

Starting date summer/autumn season: July-September 2018

You are welcome to contact us if you have any further questions. We are looking forward to reading your application. Please send it to post@stavangerkickoff.no (pdf file).
